

STANLEY E. PRATT MEMORIAL FUND

Stanley E. Pratt
1931-2019

We are pleased to announce, within this Capital Campaign, the start of the Stanley E. Pratt Memorial Fund.

Stan Pratt was a husband and father, mentor to many, and friend to many more. He was also a leader for the Wellesley Historical Society, serving on the Board for many years. He attended nearly all events, and loved to toast the Society's every success.

When the Society first considered purchasing the Stanwood House, Stan became a champion for the project's potential to increase the Society's reach and impact. He was one of the first to raise his hand to provide support, and convinced many of his friends and colleagues to join in.

The Society is now poised to achieve that promise that Stan and so many others have seen. Contributions to the Stanley E. Pratt Memorial Fund will go directly towards transforming the Stanwood House into Stan's vision for the Society's new home.

Bring Our History Home

The Stanley E. Pratt Memorial Fund will honor Stan and his vision for the future of the Society.

How will contributions to the Fund be used by the Wellesley Historical Society?

- The Stanley E. Pratt Memorial Fund will first be directed to the objectives of the Capital Campaign.
- With the completion of the Capital Campaign, donations to the Stanley E. Pratt Memorial Fund will be allocated by the Wellesley Historical Society Board of Directors to the Society's activities and needs which best fulfill Stan's support of and enthusiasm for the Society: collections care and preservation, programming and exhibits, and scholarship funding.

Please consider a contribution to the Stanley E. Pratt Memorial Fund.
